

Montclair Film Festival to feature a film showcasing the unique perspective of teens on the spectrum...

Can you imagine what Prom, that iconic and awkward rite of passage, feels like for teenagers on the autism spectrum? Montclair Film Festival invites you to experience a birds-eye view of that perspective. How to Dance in Ohio is a fascinating film you will find both heartwarming and heartbreaking. Here's a sneak peek: <http://www.traileraddict.com/how-to-dance-in-ohio/featurette-meet-the-artists>

HOW TO DANCE IN OHIO

Producer/Director Alexandra Shiva is scheduled to join us in-person to discuss her documentary.

When: Sat, May 2 - 2:45 PM and Mon, May 4 - 6:30 PM

Where: Bow Tie Bellevue Cinemas - Montclair, NJ

How: For complete details and to purchase tickets go to:

<http://prod5.agileticketing.net/websales/pages/info.aspx?evtinfo=40811~f1e5aa30-a72f-4be8-84d2-d14598d9c606&epguid=57302deb-3148-4a99-8390-08416fbc6045&>

Montclair Film Festival - May 1-10

Ticket Sales Open:

Montclair Film Festival Members - April 8 (there's still time to join)

General Public - April 13

Experience all 10 days of the Festival - 3 rockin' parties, 16 conversations, 60+ shorts, 77 features - over 150 events you're sure to enjoy.

Keep up with all the Festival excitement!

Visit us at: <http://montclairfilmfest.org>

Like us on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/MontclairFilmFest?fref=ts>

Follow us on Twitter: <https://twitter.com/MontclairFF?lang=en> hashtag #MFF15

More questions? Please let me know.

Terri Reynolds

Online Outreach Team for the Montclair Film Festival, 2015